Anderson physician receives medical leadership award

(Nov. 27, 2012 – Anderson, S.C.) – Dr. William Vogenitz, medical director at AnMed Health Rehabilitation Hospital, recently received the 2012 Medical Leadership Award during HealthSouth's Medical Directors' Conference in Coral Gables, Fla.

The award recognizes overall excellence in medical and professional leadership, and exemplary performance in developing clinical staff and community involvement. Dr. Vogenitz is one of only six physicians in HealthSouth's network of more than 100 hospitals to earn this prestigious designation.

“Under Dr. Vogenitz's leadership, our clinical staff works together as a team to provide high-quality, cost-effective health care services,” said Michele Skripps, CEO at AnMed Health Rehabilitation Hospital. “Dr. Vogenitz is recognized as a leader in our hospital and community, and consistently demonstrates a genuine concern for our patients' care. All of our staff, myself included, takes great pride in working with him.”

Dr. Vogenitz started his career in psychiatry in 1999. He has worked for AnMed Health Rehabilitation Hospital since it opened in 2003. He received his medical degree from Louisiana State University Medical College and completed his residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation (PM&R) at Charlotte Institute of Rehabilitation in North Carolina. Dr. Vogenitz is board certified in PM&R and belongs to the American Academy of PM&R and the American Medical Association.
